Once they thought nothing would stand in the way of their happiness. Once they dreamed nothing but beautiful dreams filled with love and success. But now, for Joelle Dawson and John Monroe those fantasies-those heartfelt promises whispered under moonlit skies-belong in the past. Left paralyzed by a horrific airplane disaster, John has second thoughts about his ability to be a successful husband. A brutal attack by outlaws has left Joelle feeling tainted and unworthy. Together they release each other from their future and go their separate ways. But Joelle and John have never stopped loving each other.
