Ed's Journey, Vol. 1: Shadows of the Nights Tournament (Ed's Journey Trilogy) Mr. Garland Jones Bennett III

This is the sub-plot of the story that takes place after the events of 'Planet Empyrean; Ed's Journey' and the first of the trilogy; Ed, after being transported somewhere else after his friends, the Empyrean 7 is captured, is now on his own and he must do what he can do defeat his arch-nemesis in order to save the others and do what he can to save the world of Empyrean from the rule of Persephone, the traitor Seraphim's, who has betrayed her own group and has sought power in the beginning. Along the way, he meets other people who help him on his journey and he'll do what he can to succeed in completing his task to defeat the dreaded Queen and save the others, who were captured in the previous volume. Ed has lost someone dear to him and this makes a huge impact on his behavior as he travels with the others in the attempts to save Empyrean, from the horror of her clutches, and all that she's enslaved on here as well. Along the way, he prepares for the worse, as his arch-nemesis issues a tournament in which the best of the fighters are to compete and he must prepare himself for an ordeal coming to him. Forced into the tournament where he has to win in order to save the people that he loves and cares about. As well as facing off against some the most toughest opponent that they'll be facing and only through then, will the determination that they have shine on through to defeat their foes otherwise. This is the sub-plot of the Celestial Warriors series, in between both the events of both Volume#3 and Volume#4 and the first volume of the trilogy, as Ed is preparing for the tournament's preliminaries and he's about to face off against strong opponents. There is where he meets the other 'Destined Children' named Gabriel, who happens to be survivor of a legendary, disappearing clan and they prepare themselves as they'll face off against each other in the near future. One that'll create a battle that'll be passed down in generations of the planet. Will Ed succeed in his quest to uncover his powers and save the others?
