The Gospel of John: The Confident Woman Lisa Thompson

Whether you know Jesus Christ personally or not, John is a great book to study to increase your understanding about the Christian faith and why you can trust Jesus personally with your life. It will also challenge and equip believing women on how to profess the hope of Christ within them to those who have questions about the Christian faith, and also help others in their journey to know God and what being a disciple of Christ is all about! I cannot think of a better book to begin your faith journey than the Gospel of John and I cannot think of a better book to strengthen your faith journey than the Gospel of John.
