From Book 1: Jalisa a lost girl who was raised by a single mother, has a lot to learn about life, and being a woman. She meets Macio, a troubled man who was raised by the streets. His momma was a crackhead who died when he was a boy, and his daddy is serving a life sentence in prison.

With Macio's boss mentality, he runs the most paid niggas around Minneapolis. Macio and Jalisa fall head over heels for each other, but when the lifestyle of being a boss, comes in between their relationship, Jalisa doesn't know if she wants to stay or go.

When her brother is killed because of the lifestyle he chose to live, and her estranged father tries to make his way back into her life, will she accept the cards she is being dealt or will she fold under pressure? Things take a turn for the worse, friendships and loyalty is questioned and someone doesn't make it out alive. Will she chuck it up to the lifestyle or will things be too much for her to handle?
