Este libro narra un viaje del autor por Argelia tras las huellas de Albert Camus, uno de sus escritores favoritos. El libro transmite la belleza extraña de Argel y Oran, con ese sol cegador que el lector casi siente sobre la piel según pasa las páginas, y reúne todos los elementos que tanto gustan a los muchos lectores de Reverte: la descripción de los paisajes y el carácter de las ciudades, el amor por la literatura, la narración histórica y el anecdotario viajero, con un personal punto de humor. / This book recounts a trip of the author to Algeria following the footsteps of Albert Camus, one of his favorite writers. The book conveys the strange beauty of Algiers and Oran, with the blinding sun that the reader almost feels on the skin while turning pages, and has all the elements, a delight to readers: the description of landscapes and the nature of the cities, the love for literature, historical narration and anecdotes of travelers with a personal touch of humor.
