Along Came a Prince: Cinderella never had it so good! Carlyn Cade

Prince Clayton Alexander, the son of an exiled king, has lived most of his life in a lavish, secluded fortress high in the Swiss Alps. A gifted ice sculpture artist in private, he enjoys his anonymity while jetting around the globe. But when his best friend convinces Clay to co-host a Hollywood high-society, charity gala showcasing his work, he reluctantly agrees, not knowing this one decision will change his life forever. Stacia Saunders is determined not to let the fame and fortune of being an A-list celebrity pull her away from her farm girl roots. Sure, getting the movie role of a lifetime is throwing her into the spotlight, but as long as she surrounds herself with a few trusted friends and family, she can keep her private life just as she likes it...private. That is, until along came a prince! After a fateful meeting at the Hollywood charity event, Stacia and Clay sneak away on a European adventure, falling in love under the watchful eyes of Big Ben and the paparazzi. Suddenly, the seclusion they both crave becomes front page headlines. Without warning, Stacia's world becomes a twisted nightmare when the past slams into the present, and threats are made against her life. Clay knows he needs to do everything in his power to protect her. But when the danger turns deadly, will Clay be able to do the one thing he promises—give Stacia her happily ever after?
