Jenna Capwell thought she had the perfect life until a tragic accident reveals betrayals, lies, and deceit. Left broken, she believes love is just an empty four letter word.

Six months later her path crosses with Blake DeLuca, who mistakes her for the call girl he hired from an elite escort service. Jenna's moment of shock lasted less than a second before she decided to play the part—and played it well. The sizzling sex was unforgettable.

When fate places them together again, Blake stops at nothing to see her again. He's everything she should run from. A man-whore with the reputation to prove it. He never dates women more than once, yet propositioned Jenna with a 'friends with benefits' arrangement.

Hearts become involved and shatter. She made a decision that changed the rules of the game—took the risk of losing him in order to give him what he needed. Can she survive losing him? Can he survive her betrayal?
