When Ella Fitzgerald's father passes away suddenly, she and her brothers are left to fend for themselves.

Years earlier, her family had moved out West and secured their land. But years of bad luck have been hard on the finances and Ella is forced to consider selling the land her father worked so hard for.

When she hears about a mail order bride service, she signs up and awaits her match.

Nolan Hardcastle is a young cowboy with a checkered past. He has worked on several ranches and livery stables, but his past has continued to haunt him, keeping him from obtaining a place of his own.

When he hears about a mail order bride, he sees it as the perfect way to strictly achieve his dream of land ownership, not love.

But when Ella and Nolan's paths cross, will they find a way past their differences and into love that they never thought possible?
