In her childhood, the young Alexandra Burton was a wild child, living for small adventures and making friends. One of these friends turns out to be the son of the Duke of Derbyshire, the shy and secluded Edmund Carlyle. The two become fast friends and promise to have adventures for years to come as they dallied around Edmund's home, the lavish Bornroe Manor.

The year, however, it is now 1811 and the now-adult Governess Alexandra Burton is a different person. Serious, dedicated and aware of what her lot might be in life as an unmarried woman, she is surprised to find that her next job takes her back to Derbyshire—back into the life of the newly-minted Duke of Derbyshire, Edmund Carlyle.

With the discovery of Edmund's son and with a cool reception waiting for her, what fate awaits Alexandra as she returns to Bornroe Manor?
