THE NEW ALINEMENT OF LIFE : A CHRISTIANITY BASED ON JESUS, NOT PAUL (Timeless Wisdom Collection Book 254) Ralph Waldo Trine

Great numbers of men and women who are alive to a religion of the spirit, are recognizing the same formalism and the same dearth of spirituality and living force in the organized Christianity of to day, that Jesus so clearly recognized and so graphically described and condemned in his day. And since increasing knowledge has given us the sources of our existing system, they are glad to go back to what they believe to be the vitalizing religion of Jesus, instead of being longer bound—and thereby robbed of this vitalizing force in their daily lives—by the Tarsan's Romanized Christianity.

Great numbers of earnest and intelligent men and women are demanding that a re formation of Christian faith be made, in order to get rid of the harmful influence, which they recognize is tremendous in its aggregate, of the old teachings and doctrines of the inherent sinfulness and degradation of man. And are they not right? An enlarging psychology is now demonstrating to us what a tremendous harm, especially to children, to young men and women, this perverted teaching is capable of exercising. In all intelligent modern child training we now recognize the operation of this psychological law, that the best results are obtained not by continually presenting and harping upon the negatives, the undesirable, the sinful, but by recognizing and bringing always to the front the good, the beautiful, the true, inspiring them to self respect and, therefore, to living naturally to their best. So, likewise, in all intelligent daily life and conduct we recognize this great psychological law, but we stick to the old negative and degrading theology.

It is the difference between coming to God as a spiritual mendicant, in a we poor miserable sinners, we who are about to die attitude, or as children would naturally come to a loving Father.

The world of thinking men and women is rapidly dividing now upon this very question. We have reached the place where it is necessary to choose between an old theology based upon the inherent sinfulness and degradation of man, who is condemned by the combined fact of original sin and his own natural depravity and sinfulness, unless he accept the means of escape through a vicarious atonement that became a part of God's system—for us—on account of Paul's building his own conception of the mission of Jesus into a system that, through Rome, has come down to us as the orthodox Christian religion of our day.
