This is a story about Lacey Garner, a young, beautiful reporter in New York who is about to be given the most important assignment of her life. They want her to go undercover as a call girl and infiltrate one of the most exclusive billionaire clubs in the city!

Her childhood was difficult. She grew up in a cheap motel with a mother who was a prostitute. Lacey struggles every day with the memory of the things she saw as a child. She wants to make a better life for herself.

The assignment she is about to begin will challenge everything Lacey knows about herself, and everything she thinks she learned from her childhood. This story takes her into a world of billionaires and wealth and shows her the heights that money can achieve, and the dangers that power, and powerful men, always bring.
