Real Work From Home Jobs

Real Work From Home Jobs

After months of searching for legitimate work from home jobs, I found a grand total of four I can consider passing along. 3 of which I've actually worked for and collected actual checks from. I worked hourly and was treated and paid as if I was actually walking into a call center and punched a digital time clock. No hocus-pocus funny business with the hours or the rate of pay.

This isnt a terribly long list, I'll admit. However, the four companies listed here aren't going to ask you to buy a software suite (that particular scam I actually ran into during my search), these companies aren't going to ask you only enter your name and email so they can send you "Free information" in order to tell you more (thats another common scam by the way, they only want your email so they can sell it to spammers).

These companies are the real deal and training is paid. Oh, I actually did find a few supposedly "work from home jobs" where I was told the training wasn't paid!! There were a lot, seriously, A LOT of companies that DIDN'T make this short list because I was only looking for jobs that were actually going to pay me, that was kind of my purpose of looking, isnt it yours?
