Drama is what February lives for but the people who are in her circle are not aware of it. On the outside, Feb is just an ordinary single mother who is trying to make ends meet for her family. She has learned from her life experiences how to hide her true self to get what she wants but when an opportunity to become wealthy beyond her imagination is proposed to her, Feb's true colors show up in this diary style depiction of her life lessons.

Don't jump to conclusions with this one because she can truly turn the tables on you without a forewarning.
