Time to Make It Stop: the How of Now Jim George

Reading this book is like being hypnotized by a master, because that's precisely what happens when you open it to discover a magical world in which the real you is separated - blissfully - from your worries and anxiety. Pictures morph into words, words disappear and reappear, and in mere minutes your concerns start dissolving. This is more like taking a 20-minute vacation than reading a book, and you can take that vacation as many times as you like.
